

ORANGE HORSE

SHIMER COLLEGE
NOVEMBER 15
2008

7:30 pm

Orange Horse is Shimer's biannual talent show/open mic night where the Shimer community (including students, faculty, staff and alums) gathers to watch fellow Shimerians read poetry, sing, play music, tell jokes individually and in groups. This semester's Orange Horse is being held on November 15th and we invite you to attend! Light refreshments will be served.

You never know what you are going to see at Orange Horse. Barry Carroll ('66) tells us of the time he was a part of the Hathaway Jazz Quartet. "I played piano and wore a gaudy oriental bathrobe and a beret - I had to do something to make up for the music." Lucky attendees over the years have been able to hear a Shimer song written and performed by Eric Nicholson ('73), and last year students performed a parody entitled "Shimer Off the Roof."

Do you have an Orange Horse story? Do you know where the event started or where the name came from? We'd love to hear about it. Email a.garland@shimer.edu.
